

Yvonne Wells

YVONNE WELLS, 51 BEAUFORT, S.C. - Former Rockford resident Yvonne Wells, 51, died suddenly from a brain aneurysm Tuesday, Oct. 17, 2006, in Charleston. Born Oct. 14, 1955, in Rockford, the daughter of Richard and Patricia (Hartje) Wells. She lived in Beaufort for the past 10 years and worked for Hargray Communications, where she was recently promoted to warehouse manager. Graduated from St. Edward's Grade School and Boylan Central Catholic High School. Yvonne worked hard and played hard, was outgoing, fun-loving and made friends with everyone she met. She loved the beach, ocean and especially dolphins. Survivors include her mother and stepfather, Patricia and Joseph Huitzacua of Rockford; her sisters, twin Yvette (Michael) Powell of Rockford and Doreen Barakett of Cape Coral, Fla.; her brothers, Richard Wells of Miami, Fla., and Ronald Wells of Beaufort; stepsister, Jeanne Ann Huitzacua of Rockford; and stepbrother, Joseph Huitzacua of Rockford. Also survived by her nieces, Kielly and Raquel Wells; nephews, Sean Barakett and Bradley and Ryan (Lisa) Powell; and special friends Nick, Sally and Lara Nickle and Karen O'Quinn. Predeceased by her father, Richard Wells; a brother, Randall Wells; and her grandparents, Carl and Romona Hartje and George and Clara Wells. The family would like thank Dr. Patel and staff at CCU No. 2 at Medical University of South Carolina (MUSC) and Nitza Tyus and Wilbert Louis of LifePoint Inc. Mass at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, Oct. 25, in St. Edward Catholic Church, 3004 11th St., Rockford, with Father Michael Black, pastor, as celebrant. Visitation from 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday in Sundberg Funeral Home, 215 N. Sixth St., with a prayer at 7:30 p.m. Burial in Calvary Cemetery. A memorial service will be at a later date in Beaufort.