

Sea Verse
Bill Robinson

1.

Can you run me?
Can you really, really, really run?
Can you race me to the morning sun?
You know it's all inside you
After it's done.

Can you see the walls are down
And teach me to live in the open?

2.

Can you feel me?
Can you really, really,
really feel me now?
Can you laugh at how I come
And steal you away
From the morning
And all I've got to say today
To you.

3.

The sea sounds good,
It's understood.
It draws the sap
From out the wood
Of living!

The wind blows on
The waves before,
A joyful song upon the shore
Of giving!

And I see where you are today! !

Bridge

Ah, ahhh!

4.

Can you reach me?
Can you really, really,
really reach me now?
