Hi Stephanie,

I received a request to contact you regarding Dianne Napolis. Apparently she is using a computer and would like to follow up with you whether she was in violation of her probation. If you are not handling her anymore could you advise me who is.

Thank You

Dear Paul,

Please see below from Professor Goodman. It appears that Diana Napolis has published a set of documents on the internet that make various accusations against Professor Goodman, Professor Loftus (Irvine) and Dr. Michael Aquino. The attached email shows the text of a document attacking Dr. Goodman's study on ritualistic child abuse, allegedly published on the internet by Ms. Napolis. Could you check with law enforcement authorities in San Diego and what, if any action, they are taking? It looks like Dr. Aquino may already have contacted them. I read his note—I wasn't aware of her having "discharged a firearm." Wonder what the context was?

Thank you.

Hi,

6/9/2008

Here is the second email. Doesn't this violate Ms. Napolis' probation? Sorry but she just does not give up. I have not heard from her directly, so she is not bothering me at this time.

Thanks,
Gail

Dear Ms. Donohoo,

Napolis has published this "press release" on the Internet:

<http://newsgroups.derkeiler.com/Archive/Sci/sci.psychology.psychotherapy/2008-05/msg00012.html>

She has also created this threatening and defamatory web page:

<http://www.diananapolis.wordpress.com>

Upon discovering this webpage yesterday I sent an enote to the ISP requesting that it be taken down. As of this morning it is still there. Among its contents [referring to this new lawsuit of hers]:

"In pages 167-177 I allege that Dr. Elizabeth Loftus attempted to have me reincarcerated based on false allegations after I requested that the Institutional Review Board of UC Irvine investigate Loftus, for which I am demanding monetary damages and an explanation. Dr. Loftus claimed I had sent her material after which she felt "fear." For the record, the forensic evidence – a fingerprint on the envelope – which was sent to the DOJ did not match mine. In addition, I took a lie detector about this issue which I passed. In these pages I also expose what I believe to be malfeasance by San Diego Probation which was perhaps due to one or more defendants interaction with that department."

For the record, in view of Napolis' clear fixations, history of violence, and possession & discharge of a weapon [as stated in her lawsuit], I consider her a very real danger to the safety of my wife and myself. Furthermore, as is clear by this renewed and intensive Internet campaign of defamation, threats, and solicitation of others to defame and/or harm us, she has not been mentally healed or reformed in the slightest, indeed her mania and venom are if anything substantially more fanatic.

My wife and I respectfully request anything your Department can do to remove her Internet access and prevent her from pursuing her hate-campaign by other means. If you do not feel that she can be adequately restrained by your Department's supervision, we would support and request her return to mental confinement.

I am copying this eletter to Dr. Loftus to alert her to the Napolis webpage extract above.

Sincerely,
Michael A. Aquino

Dear Dr. Loessberg-Zahl,

Thank you for your past help in regard to Ms. Diana Napolis who has been harrassing Beth Loftus, Phil Shaver, and me. I just received this email from Dr. Loftus. I have one more to send to you. Just thought you should know that the sage continues!

Cheers,
Gail

hi there.
she appears to be calling for your censure!
but at least she's not suing you.

Thanks, Beth. She was writing to my chair, dean, chancellor, here a while back and the university wrote her a letter saying they have told me not to respond to her. How did you get the attached document? Was it through the web? It might violate conditions of her probation if so.
Gail
