

Three "Power" Admonitions

For those of us that wish to be used by God in 'power ministry' situations like healings, words of knowledge ... ("all power belongs to God", Psa. 62:11), I think I have a few words for us.

- 1.) "Be faithful" - don't despise small beginnings. Just be faithful in how and what God does through you. He may use you a lot differently than others; avoid pride and envy with a passion.
- 2.) "To whom much is given, much is required" - God's power is not given simply for our fun and enjoyment. Its from God and for God's glory. Also, if God decides to use His power through us, we should be humbled and realize that serious responsibilities accompany this.
- 3.) "Count the cost" - there is a cost to being entrusted by God with His power - holiness, humility, and an understanding that He can call upon us at any time and any place to be used. Are we willing to be interrupted in our lives for the advancement of God's glory and kingdom?
