Dear Fellow Club Members,

This coming week will find GFWC Headquarters over-flowing with club members. The President's Special Assistant and Assistants will be arriving on Monday to prepare for the upcoming committee meetings to be conducted at GFWC Headquarters. They will be preparing and serving the meals for their fellow club members attending committee meetings and hosting a special appreciation luncheon for the GFWC Staff. The members on the GFWC Executive Committee and the GFWC Constitution and Bylaws Committee will be meeting at GFWC Headquarters throughout the week. These committee members will be working closely with GFWC Staff and making plans for the 116th GFWC Annual International Convention in Philadelphia. If you have any concerns, suggestions or questions which you wish addressed by the committee members, please feel free to contact either me or any of the committee members.

Yours, in Federation Service,

/s/ Jackie

Jacquelyn Pierce
GFWC International President
