

Upcoming Programs from the Friends of the Library

First Sunday Music Series

Join us for an afternoon of musical entertainment on the first Sunday of each month from 2-3pm in the Encinitas Library Community Room. Free to the public.

Sunday, October 12*, 2:00 PM

Afro-Cuban Ensemble from the La Jolla Youth Symphony

Please note that this is the SECOND Sunday of the month

Lead by instructor, Manny Cepeda, a professor at Grossmont College and the leader of Ritmo Caribe, a local Afro-Cuban Band. The Ensemble performs the rhythms of salsa, merengue, cumbia and Cuban music on traditional Cuban instruments: congas, bongos and timbales.

Sunday, November 2, 2:00 PM

Pacific Wind Quintet

The Pacific Wind Quintet was formed in 2001 by Roger and Beverly Haines as an ensemble dedicated to studying and presenting both great works and fun diversions of the genre. On this Sunday you will rediscover why "Music is too important to be left entirely up to the professionals."

Lecture Series

Saturday, October 4, 10:00AM-11:30AM

Books: The Inside Story with Edith Hope Fine

Edith Hope Fine, award-winning children's author and Encinitas resident, will talk about how do ideas turn into books for our library shelves? The program, designed primarily for children from four through 12 and their families, will include readings from some of the author's books. Books will be available for purchase and signing.

<http://www.edithfine.com>

Wednesday, November 19, 6:30PM

The World of David Brin

Scientist, speaker, technical consultant and world-known author David Brin will speak on his diverse background and projects, present and future. His novels have been New York Times Bestsellers, Brin's latest book Sky Horizon is the first book in a new series for young adults – and for adults who feel young.

Upcoming Programs from the Friends of the Library

First Sunday Music Series

Join us for an afternoon of musical entertainment on the first Sunday of each month from 2-3pm in the Encinitas Library Community Room. Free to the public.

Sunday, October 12*, 2:00 PM

Afro-Cuban Ensemble from the La Jolla Youth Symphony

Please note that this is the SECOND Sunday of the month

Lead by instructor, Manny Cepeda, a professor at Grossmont College and the leader of Ritmo Caribe, a local Afro-Cuban Band. The Ensemble performs the rhythms of salsa, merengue, cumbia and Cuban music on traditional Cuban instruments: congas, bongos and timbales.

Sunday, November 2, 2:00 PM

Pacific Wind Quintet

The Pacific Wind Quintet was formed in 2001 by Roger and Beverly Haines as an ensemble dedicated to studying and presenting both great works and fun diversions of the genre. On this Sunday you will rediscover why "Music is too important to be left entirely up to the professionals."

Lecture Series

Saturday, October 4, 10:00AM-11:30AM

Books: The Inside Story with Edith Hope Fine

Edith Hope Fine, award-winning children's author and Encinitas resident, will talk about how do ideas turn into books for our library shelves? The program, designed primarily for children from four through 12 and their families, will include readings from some of the author's books. Books will be available for purchase and signing.

<http://www.edithfine.com>

Wednesday, November 19, 6:30PM

The World of David Brin

Scientist, speaker, technical consultant and world-known author David Brin will speak on his diverse background and projects, present and future. His novels have been New York Times Bestsellers, Brin's latest book Sky Horizon is the first book in a new series for young adults – and for adults who feel young.