Life with little kids can be a lonely and exhausting time for many women. MOPS is a special group that strives to meet the needs of moms. The first thing we do is give you a break by having excellent childcare. The children (whom we call MOPPETS) are put in fun, age-specific classrooms where wonderful volunteers take care of them so you can enjoy the time set aside just for you.

During a typical MOPS meeting, we have brunch together, listen to a speaker, discuss relevant topics and have a short craft time. MOPS is a relaxed and casual environment where moms can make friends, have complete conversations without interruption and enjoy fellowship with women who are also experiencing life with young ones.
