Thursday, January 29th Joshua: A Parable for Today by Fr. Joseph F. Girzone (novel 1983)

Adapted From the Publisher

Joseph Girzone wrote his parable in 1983 and published it himself with neither accompanying fanfare nor expectation of the extraordinary effect it would have on people around the world. With only word-of-mouth for advertising, and by virtue of its simple message of love, Joshua became an international force of spiritual strength.

When Joshua moves to a small cabin on the edge of town, the local people are at first mystified, then confused by his presence. A quiet and simple man, Joshua... supports himself solely by carpentry and woodworking. [H]e charges very little for his services, yet his work is exquisite [and]... mysterious [as] is the extraordinary effect he has on everyone he meets.

Joshua, the beloved classic, was made into a major motion picture in 2002:
