

Papillion Junior Woman's Club

BOARD MINUTES for September 5, 2007

President Judy Anderson called the meeting to order at 7:30 at the Papillion Firefighters Station. The meeting opened with the Club Collect, Junior Pledge, and the Pledge of Allegiance. Jackie Fowler led us in singing the National Anthem. Secretary Theresa Richey called roll by asking members to tell something sweet.

Members present were: Dee Alfrey, Judy Anderson, Renee Black, Marlene Brandt, Karen Crandall, Jackie Fowler, Kristy Funk, Michelle Harris, Barb Jackson, Angie Johansen, Jan Kay Kelp, Marie Kuklinski, Jackie Mach, Carol Milliken, Karen Olson, Kathy Pohl, Debbi Reasoner, Theresa Richey, Jane Swartz, and Shirley Witkofski.

President Judy Anderson welcomed out new guests, Kerri Ann Becker, Kelly Pohl, and Beth Ragland and presented them with sweet welcoming gifts, a box of brownie mix, a new spatula, and oven mitt.

Treasurer Kristy Funk said that last years books were audited and approved by Jackie Fowler. Dues this year are $30.00 and Kristy asked for club members to turn that in either this meeting or at the latest at our Oct 3 meeting. Kristy gave the May -August 2007 Treasurer's report -our beginning balance was $2,162.50 and ending balance $2,218.87. This included donations of $25.00 to GFWC and $100.00 to the Kiddie Parade prize winners.

Theresa Richey read two pieces of correspondence- one from Rebuild New Orleans Public Library Foundation thanking our club for donating books, and a second letter, from President Judy Anderson thanking the club for the end of the year gift , a Peggy Karr plate, that they gave to her last May.

We played a getting to know you game, What Would You Bring to a Deserted Island? that got or club members laughing and talking.

Jackie Fowler led us in Singing Time, 2 uplifting selections- Consider Yourself and Welcome Back

The PJWC Board treated the club to a Brownie Sundae Buffet

President Judy Anderson talked about some of the goals she has for the club this year. She says she will expand on Sail with the Arts that was her theme last year. She particularly mentioned her interest in Domestic Violence, Conservation, Education, and Woman's Health. GNFC is offering a Domestic Violence Grant and Woman's Health Grant to Clubs and asked club member, Barb Jackson to submit applications for our club. Judy suggested our club participate in Plant a Row Garden Spot activity where club members could harvest vegetables and give it to Safe Haven or the Open Door Mission. Judy also talked about Identity Theft and Retirement, Operation Smile, and special projects; Heavenly Hats, Kids with Cancer and Bullying as her interests this year.

The PJWC Board presented "We ARE Women Hear Us Roar", a one-act skit.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Jackie Mach thanked club members for manning our Funnel Cake Booth at Papillion Days- proceeds this year $1,706.

Jackie Fowler and Theresa Richey thanked the members for their participation in this year's fundraiser, the Papio Duck Paddle. They reported $2554.63 in proceeds from the Papio Duck Paddle held at Papillion Days. Suggestions for improving the event next year: club members pair up with each other to cover duck sales in their neighborhoods together, club members sell or buy the ducks that they are responsible for, make the event more or event- get kids and families involved with a drawing contest, having a drum-roll and band at the duck launch, and possibly changing the time of the event.

Michelle Harris reported the Kiddie Parade at Papillion Days was a success.

President Judy Anderson thanked club member Jan Kay Kelp for the darling float advertising PJWC that she and her husband made and rode in the Papillion Days Parade.

Vice President, Karen Crandall, asked for suggestions for locations for our PJWC Christmas Party now that Farmer B's is closed. Several members made suggestions and volunteered to get the needed information needed for the location to be selected.

Judy Anderson announced the District II convention will be 10/27/07 in Bennington, NE.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Theresa Richey
