CHSSA RULES FOR DRAMATIC/HUMOROUS INTERPRETATION1. General Rules:

- a. No contestant may use exactly the same literary work which s/he used in previous competitive years.
- b. No contestant may enter the same selection in two state qualifying events. A selection is any quotation from a work of no less than 150 words or a complete work of fewer than 150 words.
- c. Time: Interpretations shall be no more than ten minutes in performance including introductory and transitional materials. There is no minimum time limit. Exceeding this time limit by more than 30 seconds shall be penalized by a lowering of one rank.
- d. Identification of the selection: The title of the selection and name of the author shall be given by the contestant when the selection is introduced. Failure of a contestant to introduce the selection as prescribed shall result in being penalized not more than one rank.
- e. No selection shall be the contestant's own work; the contestant shall suggest the thoughts, emotions, the ideas and the purposes of the author. No costumes or props [the use of something extraneous to the body] shall be permitted in interpretation. Although gestures or pantomime may be used, they should be used with restraint.
- f. Published Materials: All contestants must use published materials. "Published" as used in these rules means materials printed, published, readily available, and nationally distributed. Locally published or publications published in limited quantities are not acceptable. Selections available only on nationally distributed phonograph, compact disc, audio or video tape recordings shall be permitted only if the material used is printed on the jacket or box of the recording or on a printed insert with the recording. Only the original printed source or a photocopy of the original printed source shall be considered adequate proof publication. Published materials obtained from the Internet may not be used.
- g. Violations of general and/or specific rules, except as noted, shall result in the contestant being ranked no higher than seventh (7th) place in the round(s) in which the violation occurs, and/or being disqualified.
- h. Manuscript Requirements: Photocopies of interpretation selections including title pages (and table of contents if from an anthology) and the publisher page must be submitted with each contestant's entry to the State Qualifying Tournament. Scripts provided by Script City, Book City of Burbank, and Hollywood Collectibles or similar script publisher need not have a publisher page, but must provide proof of being commercially printed, published, readily available, and nationally distributed. Such proof may be in the form of a receipt for purchase which shows above criteria have been met. Each page used in the interpretation must be copied in its entirety. Words not used in the cutting must not be crossed out. The portion(s) of the author's work being used in the interpretation must be highlighted. League Presidents shall forward to the Area Chairperson proper photocopies of all contestant interpretations which have qualified for the State Tournament.

All introductory, transitional and updating material shall be typewritten or printed neatly and inserted into the selection and underlined. Unpublished material used for introductions and transitions of interpretations shall be the original work of the contestant. Published materials used for introductions and transitions of interpretations shall follow all manuscript requirements.

Transitions and other added material must not change the author's intent.

The coach, contestant, and a school administrator must sign the CHSSA cover sheet and attach it to all scripts submitted for qualification for the State Tournament. Contestants must adhere to the material as submitted when performing during all contest rounds.

2. Specific Rules: Dramatic and Humorous Interpretation

- a. One character selections, or monologues, may be used.
- b. Performance: The interpretation must be delivered from memory; no notes, prompting or scripts shall be permitted.
- c. Contestants may not combine two or more pieces of literature. A piece of literature shall be defined as one piece of writing which was written with the intent to be published as one work. This will not include pieces such as "collected works" of an author or group of authors; collections of newspaper articles or cartoons published as one book. But will include pieces such as Light in the Attic which was written with the intent of being published as one work. However, excerpts from other published works (if referenced within the literature selected for interpretation) may be used, provided that all manuscript requirements are followed. A maximum of 150 words may be added to the selection to provide introductory and transitional materials insofar as those added materials do not change the author's intent.

[Competition judges are never authorized to ignore, modify, or otherwise alter events rules. Any and all questions re interpretation of rules should be addressed to the President & Executive Council of CHSSA.]
